Notes of clarification for Question Masters:

Round 8, question 4:

- B "Hoi polloi" is Ancient Greek for "the many". Therefore, in "the hoi polloi", the definite article appears twice; strictly speaking, either "the" or "hoi" is redundant.
Since in this context "fraternising" is a gerund (i.e. a noun) "his" rather than "him" is correct.*
- C The correct name of the Hamilton club is "Hamilton Academical" (not "Academicals").
Although "East Stirling" is often used, this club is correctly "East Stirlingshire".
While Ochilview Park is actually the home ground of Stenhousemuir FC, it is currently also being used by East Stirlingshire.*
